Co-Published by the Academy of Financial Services and the Financial Planning Association

The editor of Financial Services Review wishes to thank the Stetson University, School of Business, for its continuing financial and intellectual support of the journal.

Aims and Scope: Financial Services Review is the official publication of the Academy of Financial Services. The purpose of this refereed academic journal is to encourage rigorous empirical research that examines individual behavior in terms of financial planning and services. In contrast to the many corporate or institutional journals that are available in finance, the focus of this journal is on individual financial issues. The Journal provides a forum for those who are interested in the individual perspective on issues in the areas of Financial Services, Employee Benefits, Estate and Tax Planning, Financial Counseling, Financial Planning, Insurance, Investments, Mutual Funds, Pension and Retirement Planning, and Real Estate.

Publication information. Financial Services Review is co-published quarterly by the Academy of Financial Services, and the Financial Planning Association. Institutional subscription price for the year 2014 is $100. Personal subscription price for the year 2014 is $75 and is available by joining the Academy of Financial Services. Further information on this journal and the Academy of Financial Services is available from the website, <http://www.academyfinancial.org>. Postmaster and subscribers should send change of address notices to Stuart Michelson, Academy of Financial Services, Stetson University, School of Business, 421 N. Woodland Blvd., Unit 8398, DeLand, FL 32723.
