published in collaboration with the Financial Planning Association

Financial Services Review is the journal of the Academy of Financial Services, published in collaboration with the Financial Planning Association. Membership dues of $125 to the Academy include a one-year subscription to the journal. Financial Planning Association members receive digital access to the current volume/issue of the journal. Institutional membership to Academy of Financial Services is $250 and includes the four annual issues of FSR.

How to Submit: There is a $100 submission fee payable to the Academy of Financial Services (AFS) for all submissions to FSR. Submission fees should be paid online at academyfinancial.org. If none of the authors is a member of AFS, please complete an online membership application form, which can be downloaded at <http://academyfinancial.org>. When authors pay the $100 submission fee and are not currently members, they receive their first year of AFS membership at no charge. A submission fee of $100 per article should be paid at: <https://academyoffinancialservices.wildapricot.org/Submit-an-Article>. Submit your article electronically as an email attachment in WORD format only (no PDFs please) to the Editor Stuart Michelson at smichels@stetson.edu. Style information for the manuscripts can be found on the inside back cover of this journal.

Co-Published by the Academy of Financial Services and the Financial Planning Association

The editor of Financial Services Review wishes to thank the Stetson University, School of Business, for its continuing financial and intellectual support of the journal.

Aims and Scope: Financial Services Review is the official publication of the Academy of Financial Services. The purpose of this refereed academic journal is to encourage rigorous empirical research that examines individual behavior in terms of financial planning and services. In contrast to the many corporate or institutional journals that are available in finance, the focus of this journal is on individual financial issues. The Journal provides a forum for those who are interested in the individual perspective on issues in the areas of Financial Services, Employee Benefits, Estate and Tax Planning, Financial Counseling, Financial Planning, Insurance, Investments, Mutual Funds, Pension and Retirement Planning, and Real Estate.

Publication information. Financial Services Review is co-published quarterly by the Academy of Financial Services, and the Financial Planning Association. Institutional subscription price is $250. Academic subscription price is $125 and is available by joining the Academy of Financial Services. Academic subscription includes four emailed online issues of Financial Services Review each year. Hardcopies of the journal are available at additional cost. Further information on this journal and the Academy of Financial Services is available from the website, <http://www.academyfinancial.org>. Postmaster and subscribers should send change of address notices to Stuart Michelson, Academy of Financial Services, Stetson University, School of Business, 421 N. Woodland Blvd., Unit 8398, DeLand, FL 32723.
